Article I – Name
Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the Columbia University Wind Ensemble, hereafter referred to as the Wind Ensemble (or CUWE).

Section 2. The Executive Board of the Wind Ensemble, hereafter referred to as the ‘Board,’ shall be made up of undergraduate members of the Wind Ensemble and have the primary responsibility for directing the operations of the organization.

Article II – Purpose
Section 1. The Wind Ensemble is a selected group of woodwind, brasswind and percussion players. It is designed to offer an opportunity to accomplished musicians to perform challenging music of various instrumentation and styles. Dedicated to the performance of the finest original wind literature from the Renaissance to the present, the Wind Ensemble utilizes a flexible approach to instrumentation, allowing for stylistic accuracy in the performance of everything from the large military band works Gustav Holst to the chamber wind pieces of Mozart. Membership is by audition. In addition, the Wind Ensemble seeks to support musical education in the local community via its Making Music Matter Program.

Article III – Membership
Section 1. Membership is open by audition to musicians playing woodwind, brasswind and percussion instruments, or other instruments as deemed necessary by the music director. Further exceptions may be made by the music director. Admission to the group shall be determined by an audition committee chaired by the music director.

Section 2. Only members who are undergraduate students in Barnard College, Columbia College, School of General Studies, or the School of Engineering and Applied Science may vote or hold office.

Section 3. The privileges and responsibilities of membership are that all individuals attend rehearsals, practice their music and show an active interest in the future and integrity of the Wind Ensemble.

Section 4. Membership may be revoked by any member of the Executive Board with approval of the President due to the member’s failure to comply with the standards of the Wind Ensemble.

Article IV – Executive Board
