WISC Newsletter, Early March 2010

WISC Events

Tea, Coffee and Cookies
Tue. Mar. 9, 3-5pm, location TBD
Come learn about WISC, who we are, what we're about and how you can get involved, all over free tea, coffee, and cookies. All welcome.

Officer Meeting
Mon. Mar. 15, 6:30-7pm, location TBD
Meeting of the WISC Officers to discuss logistics of the organization. WISC Event Chairs and Department Representatives are not required to come but are always welcome. Dinner served. Immediately followed by General Meeting

General Meeting
Mon. Mar. 15, 7-8pm, location TBD
Meeting for all those interested in learning more about WISC, what we do, and how they can get involved. All welcome. Refreshments served. Immediately preceded by Officer Meeting.

Volunteer Opportunities

Take a Girl to College Day
Fri. Apr. 2, 2010, main CU campus
All sorts of volunteers are needed. Interested? Email us at wisc.group@gmail.com.

Women in Science and Engineering: Preparing for Graduate School, a WISC/SEAS sponsored workshop
Fri. Apr. 2, 2010, Schapiro
We need your poster! (Engineering posters especially.) Even if it's old and moth-eaten! During this all-day workshop for prospective female graduate students, we'd like to have posters on display in the lobby of Schapiro. Please lend us your poster for this event and we'll reward you with breakfast (on Apr. 2) and a small token of our appreciation.

Tutor for the Columbia Women in Science Study Center (WSSC)
every Wed., 4:30-7pm, 417 Schermerhorn
Come work on math/science homework with local 11th and 12th grade girls. Anyone can drop by any time to tutor. Contact Jennifer McAdoo (jlm2202@columbia.edu) with any questions.

"Explore Your Opportunities-The Sky's the Limit!" Conference
Sat. Mar. 20, College of Mount Saint Vincent and Barnard College, New York Conference for 7th grade girls is held at Barnard College. The conference mission is to encourage young women to study science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) in order to leave their career options open. Conference hosts 150 girls and 50 parents and educators. See web page for details: www.aauw-eyoconference.org . Looking for women scientists to volunteer to be workshop assistants. Contact Lorrin Johnson at ljohnson@barnard.edu or by phone 917 297-4548 for more information.

Events of Interest

National Summit on Gender and Postdocs
For more information and online registration visit http://www.nationalpostdoc.org/advance-summit.

Science and Technology Career Expo
Sun. Mar. 14, Jacob K. Javits Convention Center, 9am-7pm
For additional information or to register, please contact: Arlene Goldman, Career Expo Coordinator, New York City / New Jersey FIRST, algo100@gmail.com or (917) 330-0391. To learn more about FIRST, please visit: www.usfirst.org or www.nycnjfirst.org.

Goldman Sachs Technology Diversity Recruiting Event
Thurs. Mar. 18, 200 West Street, New York
On the evening of March 18, 2010, Women in Technology (WIT) and HCM will host an event at 200 West Street, New York, “Women in Technology.” The primary goal of the event is to identify and introduce external women with an interest in technology and finance to Goldman Sachs. All of Goldman Sach's Technology Business Units will be represented and the format will be “career fair” style with a brief kickoff from the WIT leadership team. Goldman Sach's is interested in identifying strong hands on female technology professionals with experience in: software development (Java, C++ and C#), infrastructure engineering, (Information security, Unix/Linux operating systems, Storage), business analysis with demonstrated strength in Project Management and domain knowledge

   wisc.group@gmail.com  columbia.edu/cu/wisc

1 Check the calendar at columbia.edu/cu/wisc for the most up-to-date information.