WILL YOU HELP?

It doesn't much matter whether you, the reader, are White or Black—if you like what is set down in these pages, you should help us to make the next number bigger, help us to expand to full magazine size and to 32 pages. Think of the vast amount of good we could then do. The forces of mischief are well subsidized; why not help to support something like this?

Who's Who In Colored America

This Work will be in the Library of each and every Newspaper Office, Public Library, University, College, Bank, Doctor, Lawyer, Clergyman, Insurance Company, Financier, Brokerage Office, Mail Order Concern, Successful Merchants and Private families, because it contains the Life Sketches of more than 2200 persons of Negro descent, stated in brief matter-of-fact language without eulogy or criticism. It tells just the things every intelligent person wants to know about the men and women who are most conspicuous in the affairs of the day — birthplace, age, parentage, education, degrees, marriage, children, occupation, position and achievements, politics, religion, fraternal affiliation, business and home addresses, etc.

The sketches are arranged in alphabetical form and give the biographies of Educators, Bank and Insurance Company Presidents, Presidents and Deans of Colleges, the Clergy, Physicians, Attorneys-at-Law, Successful Merchants, Editors, Authors, Lecturers, and such men and women whose record of achievements entitle them to a place in the Book.

Beautifully bound in leather, and illustrated with 300
