

Joyce Plaza, M.S., M.Be.

Bio Sketch

Joyce Plaza is the Deputy Director of the Center of Bioethics and is responsible for overseeing the operation of the Center and assisting in directing the mission of the Center, including strategic planning, management and writing of grants, and fundraising and development activities for the Center.

She has a Master of Bioethics degree from the University of Pennsylvania, Center for Bioethics and a Master of Science degree in Library & Information Science from Drexel University. She is co-author of the two CFB Distance (Web-based) Learning educational programs: Conflicts of Interest, and Privacy and Confidentiality in Research.

She is particularly interested in research ethics and currently serves on the National Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse (CASA) Institutional Review Board in New York City, and a National Institute of Drug Addiction (NIDA) Data Safety and Monitoring Board. She also serves on the Monmouth County (NJ) Biotechnology High School Advisory Board, and the board of the University of Pennsylvania Center for Bioethics Alumni Society.