 TA Comments Report for: So Yoon Ahn
Q1 What are the strengths and weaknesses of your teaching assistant (discussion section leader, lab section leader, grader, or other assistant) as an instructor, and how might his or her teaching be improved?

- very responsible!
- So Yoon did a great job leading recitation. She always managed to keep recitations relevant to and helpful for class work and homework.
- So Yoon was an excellent TA--even more so, she went far beyond her required duties. She didn't need to painstakingly type up ever recitation in LaTeX and post them online for lazy people like myself who did not go to recitation and did not deserve notes, but she did anyway. She did not need to hold a final exam review, but she did anyway.
- Very nice! Was very helpful during office hours.
- So Yoon was also very good at teaching the material considering the difficulty. She was very receptive to concerns and helpful when giving advice.
- So Yoon is perhaps the nicest TA I have ever had. She is always available to go over the class material -- whether that is a private session if you can't make office hours or her lightening-fast email response times. Especially since she was the only TA for the class, she really stepped up to the role and took care in preparing interesting and informative recitations.
- The TA prepared the recitation very well, I learnt lots of math foundations that were needed for the course.
- Strengths: Recitation notes and problem set solutions provided by TA are clear and helpful, and homework was graded timely.
- So Yoon was an amazing TA. I struggled a lot of the more intensive math concepts and she was very helpful in breaking it down into easy pieces that I could understand. She's also very nice and quick to respond to emails whenever I have questions. I go to her office hours almost every week to ask questions and I always leave with a better understanding of the material. There is no way I would have gotten through this class without her help.
- So Yoon was an excellent TA. She clearly has a deep grasp of the material: her recitations were really clear and useful, and I appreciated that she took time each week to neatly type up both notes for her recitation sections (complete with examples and practice problems to work through) and thorough solutions for all of the homeworks. All of this was super helpful when studying for exams/working on homework. Moreover, she was very friendly and approachable during recitations and office hours.
