Criminally Unjust: Young People and the Crisis of Mass Incarceration
Saturday, April 23rd 2005

Tentative Scheduled Panels & Activities

8:00 am Registration Opens
8:00-9:00 am Continental Breakfast

9:00am – 9:15am Opening & Welcoming Remarks
Farah Jasmine Griffin
Director, Institute for Research in African American Studies
Manning Marable
Director, Africana Criminal Justice Project

9:15-11:00 am Opening Panel Discussion
Setting the Stage: the Crisis of Juvenile (In)Justice
Geoff Ward
Ras Baraka
Rosa Clemente
Robin D.G. Kelly

11:15-12:45 pm Concurrent Panel Discussion I
Education and Prisons: The “Pipeline”
John Devine
Kecia Hayes
Fernando Restrepo
Piper Anderson

11:15-12:45 pm Concurrent Panel Discussion II
Criminalization of Youth in Popular Culture
Yvonne Bynoe
Bryonn Bain
M-1
Akiba Solomon

12:45-1:45 pm LUNCH BREAK

1:45-2:45 pm Concurrent Workshop I – Facilitated by the Prison Moratorium Project
1:45-2:45 pm Concurrent Workshop II – Facilitated by the Blackout Arts Collective

2:45-3:15 pm Spoken Word Performances / Presentation by Student Delegations
3:15-5:00 pm  Keynote Panel Discussion
Young People and the Crisis of Mass Incarceration: New Directions In the Struggle for True Juvenile Justice
Manning Marable
Kate Rhee
Bakari Kitwana
Councilman Bill Perkins

5:00 – 6:00 pm  Closing Reception