A Single Square Picture: A Korean Adoptee’s Search for her Roots
A Reading with Katy Robinson

Monday, November 11, 2002, 7:30pm
Lower Level McIntosh, Barnard College, NYC

Please come share in Ms. Robinson's personal journey of being adopted at age seven, growing up in Salt Lake City, Utah, and returning to Seoul, Korea, twenty years later in search of her heritage and birth family. The book was selected for the Chicago Tribune summer reading club and has been called "the definitive book on a Korean adoptee's birth search," and "honest and engaging" by The Washington Post.

A book signing and reception will follow the reading.

About the Author
