Dear members of the Greek Life Club, Hellas Undergraduate Hellenic Society and Hellenic Association of the Graduate School of Columbia University:

Welcoming Greek Columbia University students to our Church community of St. Gerasimos, New York has been a long tradition. St. Gerasimos, conveniently located at 153 West and 105th Street, between Columbus and Amsterdam Avenues, is the closest Greek Orthodox Church to the campus vicinity.

As in the past, we would like to continue and maintain our neighborly relationship by establishing good ties with the younger generation and inviting them to get involved and to participate in our ethnic culture and enriched spiritual atmosphere.

It is our outmost desire to attract as many of you as possible to and to share in the beauty and magnificence of worship in Byzantine music and chanting.

We strive to satisfy the religious needs of our community by conducting bilingual services in Greek and English and offer Bible Study on a weekly basis for those interested in learning more about the Orthodox faith.

Overall we keep our agenda very active by organizing lunches, dances and celebrations of various events.

After Liturgy we would like to extend our hospitality to everyone. Please join us in our Church hall downstairs as we enjoy socializing as for it provides a friendly environment including free coffee and refreshments.

I would like to most cordially invite you to join us aboard the Church of St. Gerasimos and become a part of our Greek Orthodox Christian society.

Please do not hesitate to contact me personally by calling (718) 728-8711 or by e-mail at: agapitos56@hotmail.com

Thank you and I hope to see you at St. Gerasimos.

May God bless you and grant you success in your studies.

Rev. Agapitos Chunov
