The Major consists of four required parts as listed below.

1. Two Years of a language regularly taught in the department.

1. ______________________________________________________________ taken in

2. ______________________________________________________________ taken in

3. ______________________________________________________________ taken in

4. ______________________________________________________________ taken in

Students who enter with language proficiency at only the second-year level must complete one additional year of language study and one additional MESAAS course. When students enter with language proficiency at the third year level (or in cases where only two years of a particular language are offered in MESAAS) they must substitute 3 additional MESAAS courses.

2. A one-term introductory culture course approved by the D.U.S.

______________________________________________________________ taken in

3. Two required departmental courses

1. AHUM V3399 [Major Texts] or AFCV C1020 [African Civ] taken in _________________________________

2. MDES W3000 [Theory and Culture: Middle East, South Asia, Africa] taken in _________________________________

4. An additional 15 points of coursework selected with the approval of the D.U.S. Normally 6 points may be in non-MESAAS courses that have been approved by the D.U.S. Students who wish to count more than 6 outside credits toward the major must petition D.U.S.

1. ____________________________________________ taken with ______________________________ taken in ______________

2. ____________________________________________ taken with ______________________________ taken in ______________

3. ____________________________________________ taken with ______________________________ taken in ______________

4. ____________________________________________ taken with ______________________________ taken in ______________

5. ____________________________________________ taken with ______________________________ taken in ______________

• Concentrators must meet all requirements except the language requirement.
• Grades of B- or better are required for all major courses.
• For information about departmental honors, consult the D.U.S.

Student’s notes of any special circumstances:

D.U.S.'s notes of any special circumstances:

Signature of Student ___________________________ Date____________________

Signature of D.U.S. ___________________________ Date____________________