Sports

Women’s Basketball vs. Harvard 7:00 p.m., Morningside Campus, Dodge Fitness Center, Levin Gymnasium

Women’s Lacrosse vs. Lafayette 1:00 p.m., Baker Field, Lawrence A. Wien Stadium

March 5 … Sunday

Men’s Tennis vs. Toledo 1:00 p.m., Baker Field, Richard Savitt Tennis Center

Women’s Basketball vs. Wagner 3:00 p.m., Baker Field, Lawrence A. Wien Stadium

Concerts

March 4 … Saturday

Miller Theatre’s Early Music Series: “From the Old to the New World” Jordan Savall makes his debut with this concert celebrating Baroque connections between Spain and the New World. He conducts the combined forces of his awardwinning instrumental ensemble Hespèrion XX and his vocal group La Capella Reial de Catalunya in the glorious acoustic of the Church of St. Paul the Apostle. 6:00 p.m., Church of St. Paul the Apostle, 415 West 59th St. at Columbus Avenue. miller-arts@columbia.edu 212-854-7799

March 7 … Tuesday

St. Paul’s Cultural Music Series: Vonghu Pak Traditional Korean drums & dance starring Vonghu Pak 6:00 p.m., Morningside Campus, St. Paul’s Chapel sp2170@columbia.edu 212-854-0480

March 8 … Wednesday

The Rabi-Werner Concert: Hyperion Chamber Players Join the Hyperion Chamber Players for a livel musical concert of music. 12:15 p.m., Morningside Campus, Faculty House jw3295@columbia.edu 212-854-7643

Exhibits

February 6 – March 10

“Smallest Witnesses: The Crisis in Darfur Through Children’s Eyes” Photos of drawings collected from children during a recent Human Rights Watch mission to refugee camps along Darfur’s border with Chad. For more information, see article on page 3. 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., M-F, Morningside Campus, International Affairs Building, 4th Floor cs2316@columbia.edu

February 20 – March 10

“From Postwar to Postmodern: Three Decades of Columbia Visual Artists” The exhibition includes a selection from the archive and other paintings, sculptures and video installations generously loaned by notable alumni artists from the 1950s, 1960s and 1970s who are now leading lights in the art world— including Joan Jonas, Joyce Kozloff and Ursula Von Rydingsvard. Also being celebrated is the launch of the School of the Arts’ Visual Arts Archive, which collects images of alumni artwork, photographs and writing about the visual arts in the school. 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., M-F, LeRoy Neiman Gallery, Morningside Heights, 310 Dodge Hall ga3110@columbia.edu 212-854-3412

February 22 – March 18

“A Congo Chronicle: Patrice Lumumba in Urban Art” Organized by the Museum for African Art, this traveling exhibition features more than twenty prints, paintings and sculptures and video installations generously loaned by notable artists in the world, who sought to free Belgium in 1960. As chronicled here, Patrice Lumumba achieved the status of an African and African-American hero as well as cultural icon. Free and open to the public. 1:00-5:00 p.m., Wed.-Sat., Miriam and H. Wallace Art Gallery, Schermerhorn Hall, 8th Floor 212-854-2877

Conferences

February 27, 2006

The Events Record

Events Calendar:

calendarcolumbia.edu

CU Medical Center events calendar:
calendarcolumbia.edu

www.worldleaders.columbia.edu

Sports

March 3 … Thursday

Men’s Swimming & Diving, Eastern Intercollegiate Swimming League Championships 11:00 a.m. prelims/6:00 p.m. finals, Nassau County Aquatic Center, East Meadow, N.Y.

Women’s Lacrosse vs. Manhattan 3:00 p.m., Baker Field, Lawrence A. Wien Stadium

Sports

March 2 … Thursday

Men’s Swimming & Diving, Eastern Intercollegiate Swimming League Championships 11:00 a.m. prelims/6:00 p.m. finals, Nassau County Aquatic Center, East Meadow, N.Y.

Women’s Lacrosse vs. Lafayette 1:00 p.m., Baker Field, Lawrence A. Wien Stadium

March 5 … Sunday

Men’s Tennis vs. Toledo 1:00 p.m., Baker Field, Richard Savitt Tennis Center

Women’s Lacrosse vs. Wagner 3:00 p.m., Baker Field, Lawrence A. Wien Stadium

February 28 … Tuesday

WEAI Brown Bag Lecture: “From the Old to the New World” Jordan Savall makes his debut with this concert celebrating Baroque connections between Spain and the New World. He conducts the combined forces of his award-winning instrumental ensemble Hespèrion XX and his vocal group La Capella Reial de Catalunya in the glorious acoustic of the Church of St. Paul the Apostle. 6:00 p.m., Church of St. Paul the Apostle, 415 West 59th St. at Columbus Avenue. miller-arts@columbia.edu 212-854-7799

March 7 … Tuesday

St. Paul’s Cultural Music Series: Vonghu Pak Traditional Korean drums & dance starring Vonghu Pak 6:00 p.m., Morningside Campus, St. Paul’s Chapel sp2170@columbia.edu 212-854-0480

March 8 … Wednesday

The Rabi-Werner Concert: Hyperion Chamber Players Join the Hyperion Chamber Players for a live musical concert of music. 12:15 p.m., Morningside Campus, Faculty House jw3295@columbia.edu 212-854-7643

Exhibits

February 6 – March 10

“Smallest Witnesses: The Crisis in Darfur Through Children’s Eyes” Photos of drawings collected from children during a recent Human Rights Watch mission to refugee camps along Darfur’s border with Chad. For more information, see article on page 3. 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., M-F, Morningside Campus, International Affairs Building, 4th Floor cs2316@columbia.edu

February 20 – March 10

“From Postwar to Postmodern: Three Decades of Columbia Visual Artists” The exhibition includes a selection from the archive and other paintings, sculptures and video installations generously loaned by notable alumni artists from the 1950s, 1960s and 1970s who are now leading lights in the art world— including Joan Jonas, Joyce Kozloff and Ursula Von Rydingsvard. Also being celebrated is the launch of the School of the Arts’ Visual Arts Archive, which collects images of alumni artwork, photographs and writing about the visual arts in the school. 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., M-F, LeRoy Neiman Gallery, Morningside Heights, 310 Dodge Hall ga3110@columbia.edu 212-854-3412

February 22 – March 18

“A Congo Chronicle: Patrice Lumumba in Urban Art” Organized by the Museum for African Art, this traveling exhibition features more than twenty prints, paintings and sculptures and video installations generously loaned by notable artists in the world, who sought to free Belgium in 1960. As chronicled here, Patrice Lumumba achieved the status of an African and African-American hero as well as cultural icon. Free and open to the public. 1:00-5:00 p.m., Wed.-Sat., Miriam and H. Wallace Art Gallery, Schermerhorn Hall, 8th Floor 212-854-2877

Conferences

February 27, 2006

The Events Record

Events Calendar:

calendarcolumbia.edu

CU Medical Center events calendar:
calendarcolumbia.edu

www.worldleaders.columbia.edu