property was still owned by Alexander Ritchie. The lands east of Ritchie’s property and between the study area and the main line of the New York and New Haven Railroad had been subdivided. The railroad, which was completed through New Rochelle in 1848, is seen as a heavy black line running across the bottom of the map. According to the map’s title, the Properties Owned by IKEA
As of 2/26/01

IKEA-owned properties, 2/26/01