

WITH
Arnaldo Cruz-Malavé
Magali García Ramis
Luis Negrón
Frances Negrón-Muntaner

FIERCE:

THE WORK AND LIFE OF MANUEL RAMOS OTERO

October 6 (Mon), 2014
6:30 PM

523 Butler Library,
Columbia University
535 W114 St, New York

Manuel Ramos Otero is one of the most important Hispanic Caribbean writers of the late 20th century and Puerto Rico's first major openly gay writer. Deeply innovative in both themes and form, Ramos Otero's work spans a wide range of genres, including the essay, novel, short story, and poetry. Through his publishing and organizing efforts, Ramos Otero also made important contributions to building New York's Latino literary community. He died in 1990 of AIDS-related complications at the age of 42.

EVENT PRESENTED BY
Columbia University Libraries / Information Services
The Hayman Center for the Humanities
The Center for the Study of Ethnicity and Race at Columbia University
Latin American and Latino Institute at Fordham University
MFA Program in Creative Writing in Spanish at New York University