

Japanese Language Students

Are you planning to attend an intensive Japanese-language program in Summer 2014?

Do you need help financing it?

夏期日本語プログラム

The Japanese language program is proud to announce the Shirato Fund Scholarships, which provide financial assistance to undergraduates and graduate students participating in intensive Japanese-language study programs this summer, whether domestic or abroad. Two scholarships of $2,000 are available. For details, contact the Japanese language program or your Japanese instructor. Applications are available at <http://www.columbia.edu/cu/ealac/japanese/stdabrd.html> and must be submitted by Monday, March 10th, 2014.
