

MA IN FRENCH CHECKLIST

Students must take 8 courses that fulfill Department requirements, and write and defend an MA essay.

REQUIREMENT	Course #	Semester	Grade
1. Proseminar	FREN G8091
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.			(R)
8.			(R)

- Proseminar (an introduction to research methods, critical approaches, and techniques of close reading).
- Four classes in four of the following seven fields of French and Francophone literature and culture: Middle Ages, Renaissance, Classical, Enlightenment, Nineteenth Century, Twentieth and Twenty-first Century, Francophone. These classes may not be taken for R credit.
- Three electives classes. Two may be taken outside of the French department after consultation with the Director of Graduate Studies. Two of these electives may be taken for R credit.
- The essay should conform to the instructions in the MLA Style Sheet. When your sponsor has approved the essay, provide the sponsor, the other jury member and the Graduate Coordinator with final copies. The essay will be defended orally before the jury consisting of your sponsor and one other member of the faculty, one of whom must be a tenured associate or full professor.

FREN G8092: MA Essay Direction	Semester:	Grade:	Date/Examiners:
---------------------------------------	------------------	---------------	------------------------