DESCRIPTION:

Correspondence, manuscripts, notes, military diaries, documents, financial records, photographs, maps, and printed materials of Georgii A. Goshtovt (1889-1953), a military historian. Most of the correspondence, manuscripts, notes, military diaries, maps and printed materials pertain to World War I. Some materials deal with the Civil War, Polish history, medieval Russia and Lithuania, and the history of Russian education. Several folders contain military orders, "prikazy", dating from the early 1900's to about 1925. There are also genealogical materials concerning Russian nobility and Goshtovt's family. The maps primarily concern World War I and the Civil War; also included are a postal map of Russia in 1860, and a map of transportation routes in 1887. The printed materials include clippings, and bulletins published by various emigre military organizations. Most of the books in the collection pertain to the German army during World War I.
