House of Books, Ltd.
Papers, 1875-1984.
39 linear ft. (ca. 30,500 items in 85 boxes)

Historical note: Louis Henry Cohn, 1888-1953, and Marguerite Arnold Cohn, 1887-1984, opened the House of Books on October 10, 1930. The bookstore specialized in 20th century British and American first editions and brought the Cohns into contact with many of the major literary figures of the century.

Summary: Correspondence, manuscripts, photographs, memorabilia, business records, book catalogs and other printed materials of Louis and Marguerite Cohn and their customers, associates and friends. Correspondents include Stephen Vincent Benét, Robert Frost, T.S. Eliot, and Marianne Moore, all among the authors represented in the Crown Octavos series published by the House of Books; there are also manuscripts, proofs and correspondence with printers for this series. Other correspondents include Cyril Connolly, W. Somerset Maugham and Tom Stoppard. Also in the collection are letters and manuscripts from the stock of the shop; notable among these are a series of Graham Greene letters and pages from an autograph book which contains entries from many turn of the century American Literary figures. The collection also includes the personal memorabilia of the Cohn and Arnold families. Louis Cohn's participation in World War I as an officer in the French Army is recorded in photographs, documents and memorabilia. Marguerite's childhood collections, among them many early greeting cards, are also included.

Organization: Selected materials cataloged; remainder arranged. Boxes 1-9: Cataloged materials; Boxes 10-67: Uncataloged papers; Boxes 68-70: Ledgerbooks; Boxes 71-82: Ephemera; Boxes 83-84: Photographs.
Pearl S. Buck manuscript is on microfilm.
W.H. Auden letters are on microfilm.

Finding aids: Register, 13 p.; Columbia Library Columns, XXXIV, 3 & XXXV, 1.

Donors: Bequest of Marguerite A. Cohn, 1984. Gift of Carol Z. Rothkopf, 1984-1995.

Available for faculty, students, and researchers engaged in scholarly or publication projects.
Readers must use microfilm of materials specified above.
Permission to publish materials must be obtained in writing from the Librarian for Rare Books & Manuscripts.
