Sophie's Planet #25: Chapter 33 (Climsat: A Proposal)

16 October 2020

James Hansen

Draft of Chapter 33, Climsat: A Proposal, is available for fact checking. It is available here with the prior two chapters for context. The decision by NASA not to measure aerosol climate forcing is now coming back to haunt us. A Michelson interferometer and a high-precision polarimeter could monitor several important climate forcings and feedbacks.
